LOVE VALLEY HORSE PULL

Sept 3rd by Woody Woodall

Most of the Light weights went out on 6000. But the two big heavyweights pulled on 9000.

Thanks for coming. Hope you enjoyed it. I am proud of my boys they have come a long ways.

Mike came up lame tonight. Got another pull Saturday hope he gets better. Thanks for the pics.

EVER CHANGING "SNACK PACK" 5, OR 6?

While driving/riding at Paradox Sept 4th, Faith decided we needed a name for our impromptu group get togethers, something like the Dean Martin's "Rat Pack". Jeff says we are always eating why not the "Snack Pack" it sort of stuck with us.

Nancy, Antonio, Faith, Jeff & I had a highflying time at Paradox that morning. When Nancy decided she wanted to GO.... Faith turned Casper over to Antonio to ride, while Faith turned navigator for Nancy. We FLEW around the trails at Paradox, what a blast! I haven't done that in ages! I think Faith left finger marks on Nancy's carriage grips.

The following weekend Thursday & Friday a different "Snack Pack" (Faith, her sister Waverly & daughter Solitaire, Marilyn, Jeff & I) met in Damascus VA for an invigorating ride down the mountain on bikes! We met at the "Outdoor Inn" on Thursday, where we stayed overnight then the next morning rented bikes and coasted down the mountain. Did you know you can coast REALLY FAST! I haven't been on a bike in almost 30 years. It was a real hoot, definitely a thing to do again. Thank you for inviting us Faith.

On Saturday Sept 10th the "Snack Pack" consisting of Nancy, Antonio, Faith, Waverly, Solitaire and I met again at Paradox. All but Nancy were riding while Nancy drove Cobalt. Again I had an exhilarating ride following alongside and behind Nancy as we flew across the trails while the others meandered along at a much slower pace. I think Nancy really enjoyed my letting her go wide open after being a pasture ornament for so long. She did test me a few times at the canter with some attempted bucks, you would never guess she is a 22year old!
